

Refreshments are served . . . at the Pledge Dance

THETA DELTA CHI

Theta Deuteron Charge

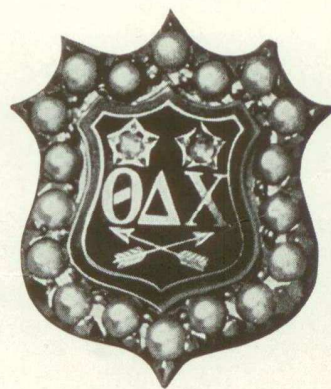

Despite the threat of annihilation by an atomic bomb at any time, the general attitude of the brothers at Theta Delt has been far from pessimistic. In support of this we point out our annual Pledge Dance held in early fall. The success of this party was attested to by the number of bodies we found stacked in the corners on the following morning when we began to put the house back in running order.

Freshman-Sophomore Week was opened by the Sophs with a great coup when they effected a mass kidnapping of the Freshmen. The mode of retaliation was that the Sophs found themselves individually drenched in the showers.

We are proud of the number of guests who have dropped in to visit during the terms. The event of the Harvard-Dartmouth football game always guarantees a mass pilgrimage from our brothers at Dartmouth. This year, four of us returned the visit in style; i.e., football game, cocktails, and women.

tirely lacking, however, as a considerable increase in scholastic standing clearly indicates. Feeling that breadth as well as depth are essential to college life, the house has inaugurated a policy of asking members of the faculty to dinner to speak informally.

Our annual spring party, the "Out-house Orgie" was held on I.F.C. weekend. With the customary sawdust, murals, and appropriate decorations, the only people who didn't enjoy it were the men assigned to clean-up on Sunday morning.

We are well represented on campus with Bob Schwanhausser and Jerry Hathaway on the Senior and Junior Boards, respectively, of Voo Doo, Bob Nickerson serving as a Commodore of the Nautical Association, plus many of the other
